The City Gaily Decorated and Large Increase in the Population.

No Flies on Victoria—She Makes a Fine Record in the Sports. Professional Baseball.

From our own Correspondent.]

Vancouver, July 1.—The twenty second anniversary was entered into at the Terminal city with the most flattering prospects for its successful celebration. The weather was glorious and there were large crowds of visitors.

A number came to the city on Sunday from Victoria, Westminster and other parts of the province by boats and trains, and the Sound contingent on the Premier on Saturday evening.

The Islander arrived at an early hour on Sunday with between 300 and 400; the Louise with 350, 150 of whom were members of the R. C. Garrison Artillery, and the Yosemite from Nanaimo with 300 or 400, each with its flags flying gaily. The visitors were met at the C. P. R wharf by members of the reception committee, and the invited guests taken care of. Over 1000 arrived by the train from New Westminster, bringing the Westminster Artillery and the Hyack Fire Co. The Atlantic Express brought in a very large number, so that, in all, Vancouver must have had between 3000 and 5000 persons from the outside, and the population for the time being fully more than half what some enthusiastic people ordinarily claim for it. All the hotels, restaurants, eating houses and many private houses were taxed to their utmost to entertain them.

THE DECORATIONS.

A conspicuous feature of the day was the general attempt at decoration. Although the committee having this in charge had not sufficient funds at its disposal to go into a lavish and elaborate system of decoration, no arches were built, but what could be done by the aid of evergreens, bunting and flags, and the efforts of private citizens was done. Conspicuous among the flags were a number of stars and stripes and several tricolors, showing that the citizens were at least cosmopolitan in their forbearance of foreign colors.

But the feature of principal attraction and of special interest to visitors, was the men-of-war in the harbor, which dressed from prow to stern arcwise with ensigns and flags, looked as they lay conveniently off the city to be models of strength and beauty, picturesque in the extreme. The great feature of the day was the procession, in the following order:

Chief and Officers of Police.
C Battery Band—12 Pieces.
Garrison Artillery—130 Strong.
Seattle Fire Brigade—12 Strong.
Hyack Fire Brigade from New Westminster, with Hose Reel—32 Strong.
Victoria Fire Brigade with Reel—18 Strong.
No. 1 Engine.
No. 2 Engine.
Hookand Ladder Truck.
Hose Reel.
Westminster Fife and Drum Band.
Carriages with Visitors; Aldermen and Citizens.
Triumphal Car.
St. George's Society—16 Strong.
(Preceded by Union Jack.)
Sons of England—18 Strong.
Foresters—22 Strong.
Swiftsure Band—17 Pieces.
Knights of Pythias—30 Strong.
(Preceded by Banner.)
Terminal and St. James Baseball Clubs—18 Strong.
Confectioner's Float.
Typographical Union—30 Strong.
Cabinetmakers and Carpenters—415 Strong.
Cabinetmakers' Floats—2.
Plasterers—18 Strong.
Vancouver City Band—16 Pieces.
Real Estate Float.
Lumberermen—68 Strong.
Foundry Float with Engine and Boiler.
Texada Ice Company Wagon.

The procession marched by way of Powell street to Carrall street, to Water street to Granville street, to Hastings street, to Cambie street, to Carrall street, to Hastings street, to Dunlevy avenue, countermarched thence to city hall and dismissed.

The chief feature of the turnout remarked by everybody was the neatness in point of appearance of all who took part. Chief Stewart and his men made a splendid appearance and were in their right place at the head of the procession. A finer body of men it would be impossible to find in any city and although their numbers were not large they looked each of them equal to a dozen ordinary men. They were dressed in their new uniforms which glistened, at least the buttons did, as if they enjoyed being displayed to the multitude.

The Garrison Artillery lent a martial appearance to the procession, and added considerably to its attractiveness. There were four batteries altogether, three from Victoria and one from New Westminster, the whole brigade being under the command of Lieut.-Col. Prior, who, mounted on his charger, looked every inch a soldier, Colonel Prior prides himself on the richness of his uniform and he may well do so, for it is an exceedingly handsome one. Major Nicholles, of Victoria, was second in command, and the batteries were in command of the following captains: First Battery (New Westminster), Captain Mowat. No. 2 Battery (Victoria), Capt. F. M. Irving; No. 3 Battery (Victoria), Capt. Smallfield. Every company gave evidence of careful training, and looked in spick and span order. They were cheered by the spectators all along the line.

The fire companies in their uniforms vied, each company, in outshining the other in appearance. The Seattle boys marched ahead and showed to full advantage in their neat uniforms. They showed a first class turn out and did credit to their city. The hose reel they brought with them was a relic of the fire. The Victoria and New Westminster boys also turned out in great shape. The whole part of the procession was excellent, and the populace, who always admire the Fire Hall lads, applauded them to the echo as they passed along.

Among those who occupied the carriages provided for distinguished guests and reception committee were, Lieut.-Governor Nelson, the Japanese and American Consuls, Hon. John Robson, W. Ladner, M. P., Mayor Oppenheimer, Mayor Grant, Victoria, Dr. McGuigan, ex-Mayor McLean, Ald. McCouell and Horne and others.

The universal verdict of the procession was that it was a success. On all sides expressions of approval and satisfaction were heard, and the managers of the line of march were given due credit for the manner in which the affair had been conducted throughout. The march was carried through without a hitch, and the programme which had been mapped out was in no respect deviated from.

One of the main features of the procession, one of the best and certainly the most novel was the triumphal car. It was gotten up in the most elaborate manner and looked like a bower of roses in which were seated eleven charming young ladies covered with wreaths of roses. They represented Britannia and the provinces and territories, and beside them were the insignia of their power and joy. The spectators were delighted with the turn-out and the very progress, whichfrom start to finish was indeed a triumphal one.

When the procession halted and dismissed Lt. Col. Prior addressed the Garrison Brigade. He said that he was pleased to have had an opportunity to parade with the Westminster Battery. This was the first time they had done so and he was pleased to be able to say that the Westminster Battery presented a most creditable turn out.

NOTES.

The Victoria riflemen were very much pleased with the treatment accorded them at Vancouver. At the rifle range everything was done to make them feel at home and a lunch was spread which was enjoyed by all. Dr. Bell-Irving, captain of the Vancouver team, was most assiduous in his attention to the riflemen from this city and New Westminster.

The gentlemen comprising the winning team called at The Times office and were profuse in their thanks to the members of the terminal city team.

BASEBALL MATCH.

The Champions Badly Downed by Professional Players.

The result of the game between Kamloops and Victoria was a surprise to our citizens. The Kamloops team were composed, principally, of imported players from Minneapolis and the ground was most unfavorable for the Amities, who were used to Beacon Hill. Marsh, the Kamloops pitcher, was a great deal better than he was last year, and was assisted by his regular catcher, C. Watson, Marsh also made three runs for the winning side. Gus Gowan and C. N. Gowan made two fine catches. The only run on the Amity side was made by Fred. Jackson. The following is the official score:

THE LACROSSE MATCH.

Victoria Wins by Four Straights—A Well-Contested Game.

When this event was called at 1:30 p. m. there were some 5000 people present and their anticipation for an exciting game were fulfilled. The teams lined up as follows:

Victoria.		Vancouver.
W H Ollin	Goal	Bingham
Cambridge	Point	Suckling
Wade	Cover Point	Smith Jas
Ledingham	Defence	Godfrey
Ray		Quigley
Cosack		Paget
Tite	Centre	McDougall
C Ollin	Home	Stewart
Shedden		Hamilton
Cox		D Smith
Sprinkling	Inside Home	Law
Paton	Outside Home	Simpson
Mackenzie	Captain	Taylor

The rubber was taxed off for the first game by Tite and Paget, no advantage being gained by either side. Almost immediately the ball was in a scrimmage, the Victorians playing a fine field game although pressed hard by their opponents, and several face-offs had to be made, owing to the small area of the "recreation grounds" cover. After some very neat playing by both sides the ball was dropped on the Vancouver flags and then a hot tussle ensued, which ended in the rubber passing through the Vancouverites goal in nine minutes, Cox making the goal.

After the usual ten minutes rest the teams again lined up for the second game, which proved to be the most exciting of all the games played and occupied 16 minutes. Simpson got a magnificent shot on the Victoria flags, but it was of no avail, Cullen was on hand, and by a Jesuit Question Discussed—Calmness Urged—Honor Declined by a Bishop.

Special to The Times.]

Winnipeg, July 2.—Dominion Day sports were interfered with by rain. The lacrosse match, Winnipeg vs. the Ninetieth, did not take place owing to a dispute. The Winnipegs claim the match by default.

SIMILAR TO THE VANCOUVER MATCH.

Plum Creek lacrosse club was beaten by Brandon in four straights.

TEN THOUSAND MEN IN LINE.

Toronto, July 2.—The great event in the Dominion Day celebration was the large procession. Nearly all the societies, national and commercial, in the city took part and formed a huge line which was composed of about 12,000 men. The procession took exactly an hour to pass a given point.

FIERY BEAUGRAND.

Montreal, July 2.—At the postponed celebration of the St. Jean Baptiste society 5000 French-Canadians were present. All the speakers referred to the Jesuit question and with one exception urged calmness till the agitation would blow over.

Ex-Mayor Beaugrand urged the French Canadians to stand firm. They were descended from a race of fighters and workers, and the old spirit could yet be called into vigorous life if the day should ever come when their rights were denied and their liberties threatened by the fanatics of Ontario. He protested that they were loyal to the Crown, even while they stood by their religion and their nation.

EASTERN LACROSSE.

Ottawa, 4; Shamrock, 3.

Toronto, July 2.—The mother superior general of the order of Ladies of Loretto, died to-day about noon.

Kingston, July 2.—Yesterday morning Bishop Cleary announced that he had no desire to be promoted to the archbishopship of Waterford and Lismore, and had requested the pope to permit him to remain in Kingston.

TOO TRUE.

Crookville, July 2.—It has been definitely ascertained that Chas. McFall, of Montreal, Canadian passenger of the Delaware and Hudson railway, and one of the best known and most popular railroad men in Canada, lost his life by the sinking of the ferry steamer, William Armstrang, yesterday.

JAMES BAYS WIN.

The Vancouvers Defeated by the Junior Nine.

Special to The Times.]

Vancouver, July 2nd, 3:30 p. m.—The game of baseball between the James Bay nine and Vancouver was won by James Bay with a score of 20 to 8. The teams played seven innings. The Victoria boys played a great game. Jackson pitched with Hannon behind the bat.

COMMENTS AND NOTES.

School Examinations—The Irrepressible Sir Matthew—Our Library.

The public school examinations are over. The Hon. John Robson has pronounced his benediction; the lieutenant-governor has expressed his agreeable surprise at the results, in his most agreeable manner; Mrs. Nelson has smiled her gracious approval; our practical-minded mayor has painted the practical benefit which a sound education bestows, in a practical speech that the children themselves could understand. Presentations have been generously made and gleefully accepted; compliments have been exchanged all round, and in the distance even a suggestion of wedding bells has been heard. It is no wonder that our last weekly edition of The Times was one of the most interesting of the year and highly suitable to be sent to distant members of our families.

For another half year, however, our newspapers will relapse into their ordinary routine, and will, we fear, possess little interest for the rising generation, while they will only be read with a calm impartiality, which betokens something akin to indifference, by that other, wise sympathetic half of our community which we all delight to honor. It is only when our columns are filled with the names and achievements of the industrious little men and women who are growing up in our midst that copies of this "wretched paper," to quote the chief justice, are laid aside to be treasured until long after the folds have worn into their lines of holes. There is a pathos about such a battered sheet, with perhaps a big cross in ink opposite some unknown Mary Smith, or John Robinson, that wipes out of remembrance the epithets by which Sir Matthew Begbie has branded it.

"Are you the little boy whose name we see so often in the papers and who takes all the prizes?" we asked one of the youngsters a few days ago. It was a boy whom we met by accident on the street.

"Yes," admitted the little fellow with modest candor.

"And do you keep the papers?"

"No, but I think mother does," was the serious, unconscious reply.

Many of us who have outgrown youth still think it a fine thing to have our names and the names of those belonging to us printed in the newspapers, and it is just possible that the voluminous letters of Mr. D. W. Higgins and Mr. W. Wilson on the proposed land exchange, letters which some ignorant and cynical people were tempted to strip, have nevertheless been rescued by feminine hands from the oblivions of the waste paper basket. We have even heard it asserted, but still can scarcely believe it, that that perfect impersonation of autocracy, legal despotism and indifference to public opinion, Sir M., we have the honor of claiming as a fellow citizen, never omits to read a single line in which his name occurs. That he preserves the papers which contain such mention of him we cannot, however, believe. Into the waste paper basket they will inevitably go.

A touch of nature makes the whole world kin, and it is pleasant to think of two such different women as simple and old-fashioned Mrs. Gladstone, and the lively Lady Randolph Churchill, whom we may be allowed to take as representatives of English and American womanhood, alike repudiating with indignation the purchase of the English collars in which Harry Furniss, in his clever parliamentary sketches for Punch, delights to envelop their husbands' faces; but it is pleasanter still to think of the probable sheaves of newspaper cuttings stored away by them in all their available closets. This delight in public renown at second-hand, so to speak, is healthy and legitimate. It is a very different thing from either the morbid or the sensational love of notoriety for one's self, and for the sake of the impression it produces upon others. Such cravings almost always imply a miserable fate, for they lead to desperate deeds round which the wretched victim fancies a pale web of romance may be woven. The web of romance, if it exists at all, will be of the flimsiest and most bedraggled sort. It is melodrama at the very best, and neither honest comedy nor heart-rending tragedy. It wins neither smiles nor tears from the spectators, but is dismissed with a momentary ejaculation of pity, or commiseration. Did the would-be hero, or heroine of such romance, imagine that this would be the climax the number of our suicides would be lessened, and a false code of honor and dishonor would be blotted out. Reality would take the place of unreality, and the rag of feverish romance would be torn in twain.

If we are wise we shall all of us take heed to one way just now, for it is not only the school children who have been passing through an examination, but many of us grown up people too. The worthy librarian of our public library, Mr. MacGregor, whose heart is in his work, and whose readiness to oblige is beyond all praise, is silently taking the literary measure of the men and women of Victoria. He does it in the kindliest way, and with the utmost regard for our feelings. No names are mentioned in his statistical reports, no are even the vaguest clues hinted at. His division of literature, and of readers, is of the simplest kind. As the shepherds of old divided their flocks, and put the sheep on the one side and the goats on the other, so our librarian separates the volumes in his care into novels and books other than novels. The readers undergo a preliminary classification according to sex and then they are placed along with the books that they choose. In this rough and ready manner Mr. MacGregor gauges our literary capacity, and having a knowledge of the books other than novels read by the men he is, we are glad to say, able to report favorably with regard to them. But alas for us poor women! The San Francisco boys, who sustained a humiliating defeat a week or two ago, are avenged; for while the men of Victoria, during the past month, have taken out a majority of 21 books other than novels, the ladies have taken out a majority of 147 novels. If Mr. MacGregor's standard of measurement be a correct one, it is quite evident that though the intelligence, or perhaps the precocious development of girls may surpass that of boys of the same age, women cannot yet compete with men whose education and mental growth have not been summarily arrested at seventeen or eighteen. Mr. MacGregor is unspeakably considerate of the feelings of the weaker sex and in his report he passes no comment on this sad state of affairs. Indeed, we are assured by some ladies of our acquaintance who visit the library, that nothing can surpass the tact with which he delicately insinuates the information that when the novels are on them themselves. A very estimable lady, who is a great lover of works of fiction, but who had read some of the strictures against novel reading that the Times uttered when in a severe editorial mood, and whose sensitive feminine nature had therefore quite dreaded the first approach to Mr. MacGregor's inquisitorial bar, tells us that her trepidation instantly vanished, so pleasantly was the path to enjoyment smoothed for her.

But we must not forget that there are 79 wise virgins among us, who keep their lamps burning, and who read books "other than novels." It does not detract from their more solid charms to know that, in their search after wisdom, these 79 eminent women have not parted with all feminine attributes. We enjoy the confidence of many ladies, and one who belongs to this latter class assured us that it required nearly as much courage to demand the History of all Civilization from Mr. MacGregor, as it would have done to confront a mouse boldly. The gently murmured insinuation as to where the novels might be found was only an additional stumbling block which she had to sweep out of her way before making her direct attack. But when the librarian understood her request aright it rejoiced her to see how sympathetically his face brightened. The pleasure she had given him alone repaid our friend for the effort she had made. Side by side they sought out the required volume and they parted feeling that a new friendship had begun. And now in the columns of the newspapers she has acquired anonymous fame as one of the 79 women who read books "other than novels."

Served by Nationalist M. P.'s—War Rumors Indulged in.

London, June 30.—When Mr. Gladstone has achieved the crowning success of his career and the history of free Ireland comes to be written, the material for an instructive chapter may be found in a small pamphlet that has just been printed by order of the House of Commons on the motion of an English member. It contains the record of the convictions of members of parliament for offences against the "Crimes Act," and shows that during the past year the Irish members and their friends have "done" between them nearly seven years. Twenty four Irish legislators have been convicted, and one English member, Mr Conybeare, has a sentence still hanging over him. Mr. T. Condon is undergoing his fourth incarceration, having altogether received sentences aggregating eight months. Mr. E. Harrington has to complete a term of six months following upon another of one month. Mr. Finucane and Mr. Cox have sustained no less than five prosecutions against each; but while Cox's terms aggregated nine months, those of his colleagues reached but half. Patrick O'Brin's two convictions put him in for seven months. But the intrepid, doughty William O'Brien has eclipsed the record. In September, 1887, he was sentenced to four month's imprisonment; in May, 1888, to three months, and in February, 1889, to six months—an aggregate of sixteen months. David Sheehy commenced in December, 1887, with three months' imprisonment, and a week later another month was added. Then he escaped until the beginning of the present year, when he was sentenced to six months in January and four months in February. Both convictions were upheld, but finally the first was reduced to five months and the latter to one month. Cuts to be concurrently.

The Old Game.

We had an item in our last issue with the above heading, referring to Mr. Robson's visit to Surrey, and the improvement on the roads in that municipality. We very naturally attributed Mr. Robson's visit to Surrey to a desire to propitiate the voters in anticipation of the next election. Some of the Robson ring say that in doing so we acted unfairly. This, of course, was to be expected; the gambler and his pals tell the philanthropist when he warns their intended victims, and so robs them of their prey, that he acted unfairly. The poor slaves in Africa are told to place perfect confidence in the boss kidnapper when he comes around to see how many he will be able to carry off to the slave market. Our warning note will put the sensible voters on the alert and prevent the silvery notes from Mr. Robson's persuasive tongue producing their fatal effect. The people of Surrey are entitled to roads in and repairs, and they are doing wisely in taking all they can get, without troubling themselves about the motive.—Guardian.

GENERAL DISPATCHES.

Another Terrible Railway Accident—Thirty People Reported Killed.

The Fast Atlantic Service—Edmund Yates Gossip—Davitt on the Stand.

By Postal Telegraph.]

Lynchburg, Va., July 2.—The east bound express on the Norfolk & Western Railway ran into a washout this morning thirty miles from here and was completely wrecked. It is reported between thirty and forty passengers were killed. Capt. Rowland, who was in charge of the train, was mortally wounded; Baggageman Ford, severely hurt, Mayor J. C. Cassell, superintendent of the Lynchburg division, seriously injured; L. B. Summers, of Abbingdon, postal clerk, several contusions; J. J. Ross, postal clerk, killed.

ANDERSONS TO TAKE FORE.

London, July 2.—The Times says the Andersons have guaranteed to transport the English mails across the Atlantic, in connection with the Canadian Pacific railroad, at an average speed of nineteen knots. The Times says this will stimulate the scheme of a fast mail to China and Japan.

PORTUGAL ACCEPTS.

Lisbon, July 2.—The Portuguese Government accepts Lord Salisbury's proposition to arbitrate the Delagoa Bay question.

DAVITT AS A WITNESS.

London, July 2.—At to-day's session of the Parnell commission, Michael Davitt was placed on the witness stand. Davitt denied the account given by LeCaron that John Devoy's proposals were submitted to Parnell were true. "Parnell" he said, "had nothing to do with Davitt's visit to America in 1878." It was the witnesses intention to revisit America to lecture and raise money for an agrarian monument in Ireland. Davitt said while in America he attended some of the meetings of the Clan-na-Gael. The latter society was no more of a club that sanctioned murder than the Carlton club. There was no alliance, the witness said, between the Clan-na-Gael and the League in Ireland. The League movement won the whole of the Irish there to its side, as advocated by Parnell. Davitt testified he had never met a better man as regards philanthropic qualities and Christianity than Patrick Ford. He said he regretted that a few months after the League was established Ford openly in his paper, the Irish World, advocated the use of dynamite. Witness wrote him expostulating with him for the expression of such sentiments, and "ultimately," said Davitt, "Ford returned to our side honestly advocates.

THE QUEEN'S HEALTH.

New York, July 2.—Edmund Yates' cable letter to the Tribune says: The queen caught a slight chill coming up from Scotland. Each journey now has her more than the last, and it was for a time doubtful whether she would be able to attend the show on Thursday. It is said she was determined to attend at all hazards. When she did come it was evident her weakness occasioned much pain to those who witnessed it. Her majesty was not only compelled constantly to use a stick but was obliged to have recourse to the assistance of her servants on entering and leaving her carriage. She managed to distribute 30 gold medals, nevertheless, and to say something gracious to most of the recipients. On Friday she looked considerably better and showed a keen interest in all the novelties, and especially in a machine for projecting disinfectants over trees, which she hopes will save her dear chestnuts in Windsor Park from the ravages of caterpillars.

SULLIVAN'S TRAVELS.

Cleveland, July 2.—Sullivan and party in a special train of three cars ran into the Nickel Plate depot here early this morning.

A CRISIS IMMINENT.

Paris, July 2.—It is believed here a ministerial crisis will result from the recent seizure of certain letters in M. Mever's house by M. Thevenet, Minister of Justice. It is expected Thevenet and Bouvier, Minister of Finance, will resign.

ANOTHER OPINION.

Baltimore, July 2.—A friend of Kilrain says Mitchell told him yesterday that the battle would be a long one and that Sullivan would try his old time rushes and terrorizing style in the first few rounds, but Kilrain's generosity and agility would prevent the big fellow from doing him any harm and Jake would make Sullivan work so lively that he would become winded. Then would come Jake's turn. Mitchell said that in his fight with Sullivan he had studied every trick of the big fellow and that Kilrain will enter the ring as well acquainted with his antagonist's fighting as though they fought before.

San Francisco, July 2.—Paddy Ryan in an interview this morning, said that if Sullivan is in the condition that newspaper reporters say he is, Kilrain will certainly receive a sound drubbing when they meet for battle next Monday.

STANLEY'S HAIR IS WHITE.

London, June 30.—Mail advices from West Africa confirm previous reports of the shocking privations to which Stanley has been subjected. It is stated that his hair turned snow white, that his clothes are rags, and that he is without shoes, being obliged to use skins to cover his feet.

SARAH ALTHEA TO LECTURE.

San Francisco, July 2.—It is reported here that Mrs. Sarah Althea Hill Terry has signed a contract with an eastern theatrical manager to deliver a series of lectures on the Sharon case at several points along the Pacific coast next month. It is understood that Mrs. Terry will receive 70 per cent. of the gross receipts and all expenses.

Suits for Damages.

The South Fork fishing club, owner of the dam whose collapse devastated Conemaugh valley, is composed of millionaires of Pittsburgh. Their united wealth is said to be about $50,000,000. An effort is now being made to force the members of the club to pay for the damages caused by the collapse of their dam.

There is scarcely any doubt of the liability of the South Fork fishing club for damages, although it may be suspected that the case will remain in the courts for some time if $50,000,000 can keep it there. The plaintiffs, however, are well backed. Everybody interested who is able has promised help, and with practically as much money on one side as on the other the cause celebre of Pennsylvania will be inaugurated. It is not impossible that as soon as the club is served that suit will be begun against it an attempt will be made to effect a compromise. The culpability of the club is unquestioned, and equity demands that those who have been injured by the disaster should be compensated.

ANNEXATION.

With regard to the annexation of Canada to the Umted States while undoubtedly the former would be temporarily benefitted by the influx of American capital which now hangs back principally because the Americans, still having plenty of room to expand within their own territory, are averse to pushing their fortunes under a foreign flag, many have never favored it for the obvious reason that Canada is large enough to become a nation of herself. Nor is this a mere matter of sentiment. All experience goes to show that a people scattered over a vast area of territory cannot have interests in common. What is good for one locality may be opposed to the best interests of another, hence differences arise, and political struggles intensify. Probably no people in the world, save those long accustomed to the exercise of self-government, would have gone through the last presidential election in the States without bloodshed. Nor is it all likely that the people of the United States in the future, when the struggle for existence shall have become closer, will accept the result of elections with the philosophy which has characterized them in the past. The submission of the majority in the east to the demands of the minority in the west, in relation to the Chinese question, unquestionably averted a revolution and we may look for the recurrence of questions equally as important in which, unless the majority acquiesce to the demands of the minority, trouble of a revolutionary character will ensue. The idea therefore of the United States dominating throughout the entire continent of of North America, cannot be regarded worthy of acceptance except as a sentimental proposition. There is an influential minority of sentimentalists in the States which favor not alone the annexation of Canadr, but Mexico and the Central American States also. Such a proposition reads well. It appeals strongly to the national vanity of the Americans, and the ball once set rolling the idea would soon become epidemic. But the plan is altogether too comprehensive. Admitting that it would be possible for the U. S. to assimilate 20,000,000 more people would it be possible to conserve the interests of all the people alike. We think not, and the discontent naturally arising would prove antagonistic to unity. Manifestly, therefore, whatever the Americans may acquire on the south, Canada should persist in maintaining her autonomy. She exemplifies today the nucleus of probably 75,000,000, of people, a number quite sufficient to constitute a nation. It is true that the United States is the Mecca of the homeless, but Canada is doing well enough, and if Canadians will abancon the "every man for himself" and the devil take the hindmost idea for an intelligent and patriotic regard for the future, they will resist annexation overtures, and kindly but firmly proclaim their intention of paddling their canoe alone

OUR GEOGRAPHICAL POSITION

The geographical position of B. C. at this juncture, if not anomalous, is at least unique, and common report says very unsatisfactory. Commencing at a point somewhere in the Rocky mountains, the Dominion of Canada projects itself westward to the coast in the shape of a narrow belt 40 miles wide. The people living on this strip of Dominion land are not citizens of the Dominion but of B. C., and amenable to laws; but if they wish to purchase any of the land they must comply with the Dominion land laws. Now all this is simple enough, and it is understood, but the arrangement is cumbersome, and as that inimical, it is alleged, to the settlement of the land, inasmuch as the Dominion land laws, particularly those relating to mining, are not as liberal as those of British Columbia. Away on Peace river, a terra incognita, to ninety-nine men out of a hundred, British Columbia will be acquired, through a species of juggling too tedious of explanation to be elucidated here. It has been tacitly proposed by the political doctors of the Dominion, (our own have not yet given their assent, although it is rumored that "Barkis is willin"), that the Peace river possessions be exchanged for the Dominion dominions which place this province from the eastern to the western extremities. Of the merits of this proposition we are unable to express an opinion, but Mr. Higgins says the swap should not be made. The Colonist on the other hand declares that it should be made, and to add to the perplexities of the situation the government is dumb. The Dominion doctors, as we have said, have made overtures to the Provincial doctors looking to an exchange, but the latter are dumb. It is acknowledged on all sides that a strip of territory 40 miles wide by over 200 miles long penetrating the province like an immense peninsula is an unnatural condition of things not warranted by circumstances, nor justified by common sense, and should be rectified in some way or other, but still the government is dumb. Will it be presumptuous to ask why the government is dumb? May not our burning curiosity be assuaged by an inkling of the true inwardness of this phenomenal dumbness? It is rumored that the government has spoken, but the Colonist swears that it hasn't. Shall we question the veracity of the Colonist, that bright particular morning star of journalism, whose refulgent beams radiate over so many breakfast tables in this city? Shall we announce it as our opinion, to a confiding public, that the Colonist is engaged in a flirtation with mendacity? Must we descend to the classic vernacular of the Vancouver World, and dub our contemporary "The morning Ananias?" No, a thousand times no! We prefer to regard it as still belonging to the category of George Washington's. If the government has been dumb, and the Colonist says it has, and that is the whole of it. But we humbly ask of the Colonist why has the government been dumb? What earthly object has the government in gagging itself? We hear on the wings of the first sweet dawn of light the Colonistic response: "It is none of your business." The government is in a "dispassionate" humor, and prefers to sit on the fence and listen to the rounded periods of newspaper yawp; that notwithstanding the "exchange," or an adjustment of some kind is of prime importance to the province, the government is "dispassionate," neutral, is waiting only until public opinion has crystalized so that it cannot fail when it does get down off the fence to fall plump into the arms of the people. We have always supposed that one of the functions of a government was the transaction of the people's business. We have always entertained the idea that it was the imperative duty of the government to acquaint itself with matters of public interest and to advise the people accordingly. The fact though of the government being dumb in this land exchange business leads to the conclusion that we have been in error, or at least that our ideas are old-fashioned. The government then under the new dispensation of things is to remain dumb, dispassionate, while public matters adjust themselves. This is a revelation to us, a complete circus in fact. We are astonished at our ignorance. But if the attitude of the government has been that of a "dispassionate spectator," its organ at least has been a rampant advocate of "swap." Peculiar, is it not, that the government should be neutral and its organ partisan. Suppose the government should conclude that the "swap" is not practicable, and it can do so without stultifying itself, having remained "dispassionate" and dumb, what would the Colonist do in such a case, and what would the government do for an organ? We pause with fear and trembling at the prospect of such a contingency. On the whole we are forced to conclude that the ways of the Colonist and its backers are as inscrutable as the ways of providence.

ENGLISH AS SHE IS READ.

The Brooklyn Times objects to the omission of the word "the" before names of yachts, especially those which are called by the names of women. An omission that makes "Victoria prove slow in her stays is rather unfortunate, to be sure, to say nothing of the implied slur on a lady of that name who should happen to stand high in society, while the statement that "Alice ran her nose in the mud" is one calculated to make some thousands of tidy young women, who have been taught by painstaking mothers in their childhood the virtue of keeping that member clean, involuntarily to reach for their pocket handkerchiefs. Retain the little word by all means and thereby avoid such suggestive announcements.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Lord Charles Beresford, conservative member for Marylebone, will resign his seat in parliament to accept the command of an ironclad.

A subscription bar is soon to be opened at Berlin, where for $150, paid in advance, a man can drink all he chooses as often as he chooses. The life members will be called baristers.

One of the dangers lying in the way of the boom in the inflated sugar trust certificates is a possible reduction of the tariff on refined sugar by the next congress. Leading Republican organs have declared that the tariff on salt and copper must go, on account of the rings in those products, and now the St. Louis Globe Democrat is preaching a robust reduction in the duties on refined sugar which "will be made next winter." This would not only squeeze the water out of the trust but life itself. Prices for the inflated certificate have advanced from obscurity and next to nothingness in April to 118 on Saturday.

CITY AND PROVINCE.

—Government is an art above the attainment of an ordinary genius.

—Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator is pleasant to take; sure and effectual in destroying worms. Many have tried it with best results.

—A good man is kinder to his enemy than bad men are to their friends.

—Narrow minded and ignorant people talk about people and not things.

—Why go limping and whining about your corns, when a 25 cent bottle of Holloway's Corn Cure will remove them? Give it a trial, and you will not regret it.

—Happy were men if they but understood, there is no safety but in doing good.

—Joseph Russn, Percy, writes:—I was induced to try Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil for a lameness which troubled me for years, and I found it the best article I ever tried. It has been a great blessing to me.

—Our greatest glory consists not in never falling, but in rising every time we fall.

—Good breeding shows itself most where, to an ordinary eye, it appears the least.

—Ease by day and repose by night are enjoyed by those who are wise enough to apply Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil to their aching muscles and joints. A quantity easily held in the palm of the hand is often enough to relieve the most exquisite pain.

—Persistence—"I am sorry, but the editor can not talk to any one to-day." Author—"Oh, that's no matter, I will do all the talking myself."

—Mrs. M. Stephens, of Albany, N. Y., writes us as follows: "My strength was so weak that I could not eat anything sour or very sweet, even fruit at ten-time would cause Heartburn, fulness or oppression of the chest, short breath, restlessness during sleep, and frightful dreams of disagreeable sights, so that I would often dread to go to sleep. With the use of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery this unpleasantness has all been removed, and I now eat what suits my taste or fancy."

—Mr Skinner—"Do you not admire dialect stories, Miss Flitter?" Miss Flitter—"I can't say that I do. When I skip a page or so in the book I like to do it from inclination, not necessity."

—THE THIN CANNOT GAIN IN WEIGHT if they are troubled with dyspepsia, because the food is not converted into the due proportion of nourishing blood which alone can furnish the elements of flesh. But there is no reason, when this wearing, attenuating disease is conquered by Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, why there should not be an appreciable gain in weight, which indeed is usually the case. It is a peerless remedy also for Constipation, Liver Complaint, Kidney troubles, and roots out all impurities from the blood.

—Baseball Maiden—Yes, Mr. Joblots, all is over between us. Here is the ring. Mr. Joblots—I am to understand then, Mabel, that our engagement is at an end. Baseball Maiden—Exactly. I give you your release and expect to sign a new man the latter part of the week. Good-bye.

"His pills so thick as hand-grenades flew,
And where they fell as certainly they slew,"
was said of one of those ignorant doctors in the early times, who might well have been called the aide-de-camp of death. The sufferer from scrofula, with sores as bad as Job's, need not now curse the day he was born, for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will restore health and beauty, appetite and strength. Especially has it manifested its potency in curing salt-rheum, tetter, boils, carbuncles, sore eyes, scrofulous sores and swellings, hip joint disease, white swellings, goitre, or thick neck, and enlarged glands.

HANGING A WOMAN.

Sarah Jane Whiteling's Execution at Philadelphia.

Mrs. Sarah Jane Whiteling was hanged in the jail yard at Philadelphia on Tuesday morning last at 10 o'clock.

The crime for which Mrs. Whiteling suffered the extreme penalty of the law was the deliberate poisoning of her husband and two children for the purpose of securing the small insurance which she carried on each of their lives. Her husband died March 20, 1888; one child April 24th, and the other May 26th. After her arrest the woman made a full confession, detailing the agonies her little ones suffered as she slowly poisoned them—her sweet-faced daughter, aged 9 years, lingering in excruciating pain three days. The aggregate insurance recovered for the three murders was less than $400.

Mrs. Whiteling's bearing throughout the terrible ordeal was a most remarkable exhibition of fortitude and resignation to her fate during the entire morning. She never for a moment showed the slightest evidence of weakness, and frequently expressed pleasure at the prospect of meeting her husband and children.

IN THE CHOIR.

Leaving the Church With a Military Accompaniment.

There is more fun in a church choir than a good many people imagine. Some time ago one of the young ladies in the choir of a fashionable church felt disposed for a lark. During the services she whispered over to the organist: "Why don't you play 'The Turkish Patrol' for them to go out?" I don't know 'The Turkish Patrol,'" replied he. "Well, I'll get it for you." Sure enough, on the next Sunday he turned over his music to play the exit march and found "The Turkish Patrol" thumping out from under his fingers almost before he knew it. He couldn't stop where he was and it wasn't for him to spoil a lark, anyhow. His attention was very soon called to the fact that the pastor of the church was waving his hand violently. He looked back and his heart went down among the organ pedals. There was the reverend shepherd of the flock gesticulating in the most emphatic manner, evidently for the purpose of stopping the music. The playing ceased in the middle of a measure.

"I wish to call the attention of the congregation," said the pastor, "to a fact which I forgot to mention. There will be a social meeting of the Ladies' Society of this church at 7:30 o'clock next Wednesday evening."

The organist's heart bounded in joyful relation, and "The Turkish Patrol" was played to a finish with a vim and vigor that it had seldom known before.

CHINESE PRISONS.

How the Wardens Extort Money from the Luckless Prisoners.

A writer in the Chinese Times says of Chinese prisons that the amount of extortion that goes on in them is amazing, and the wardens and others display surprising ingenuity in extracting money from the unhappy prisoners. The newcomer almost invariably forgets to fee the night watchman. The consequence is that sleep is rendered almost impossible by the terrible noise which is kept up outside his window all night, and he speedily apologizes for his forgetfulness and makes good the oversight. If the coolie who cleans out the cell is not satisfied, he collects all the insects he can find and introduces several hundreds into the apartment of his victim, who is then only too glad to call his services into requisition to get rid of them again, even at an exorbitant price. Many of the wardens and servants are criminals who have escaped capital punishment by the omission of the Emperor to mark their names for death when the list for the autumn executions is submitted to him. This list, which sets forth the name and condition of the criminal and the circumstances of his crime, is divided into three parts. The first contains the new cases, the second those which were not marked the previous year, the third those which have escaped marking for two years. It is said that the Emperor marks about eight names in ten, and that a man who escapes once is safe from subsequent marking, although he has to go down to the execution ground the two following years. The list is brought from the palace direct to the place of execution, and until its arrival neither criminals nor officials know who are to die, the unhappy victims only being sure of their fate upon hearing themselves called out to pay the last penalty. The prisoners who have escaped are imprisoned for life, but they have a very easy existence, and, as they are employed in the prison and share in the extortions practised on other prisoners, they often amass considerable wealth.

A Famous Case.

The famous case against Watson C. Squire, of Seattle, for damages amounting to $25,000 is revived in the courts again. The case grew out of the anti-Chinese riots of 1886, when the defendant, Squire, who at that time was governor of Washington Territory, and as such was ex-officio commander of the militia forces of the territory, assumed military command of the city and by force and arms enforced martial law and, it is alleged in complaint, prevented the issue of writs of habeas corpus between the 8th and 26th of February. The plaintiff is D. Hanigan.

New Caledonia.

The Island of Vancouver to a Scot is a giant Arran and the roaring Fraser an enlarged Lochlyne or Firth of Clyde. When he sails amid the isles of the Georgian Straits he seems to see his own Hebrides—greater, but wonderfully like them. When he looks upon some deep, wild canyon, dipping into the heart of the earth, and fringed with sombre wood, or stern in naked rock, his thoughts are of Hawthorn Den and the Pass of Killiecrankie. In every mighty mountain and winding lake he finds a vaster Scottish ben and loch. On the wave-washed shores of the Western Limit he helps to establish maritime cities and fishing villages, which remind him of Leith, Greenock, Aberdeen and Wick; Musselburgh, Findon, Troon, Dundee and the great Queen of the Clyde. The voice of the Pacific sounds in his ears like the call of his northern seas, and the instincts of his old sea king blood bids the Scot to seek his living on that might western ocean just as it bids he him launch his boat fearlessly on the Atlantic of his native shores.

Okanagan News.

The crops throughout the Okanagan and Spallumcheen country and district are excellent this summer. They are so heavy that in spots the grain is lying down. The heavy rains of the 26th and 27th ensures the ranchers a heavy yield.

The school was closed on the 26th inst. for the summer holidays. The examination was largely attended. The teacher, Mr. Watson, has left for Toronto to spend the vacation.

Another marriage is on the tapis. One of our bachelors, an old timer, will shortly join the noble army of Benedicts.

There is considerable excitement in Vernon owing to the mines on Siwash Creek panning out well. Upwards of sixty claims have been staked off already and people are coming in from other places. Nearly every man in Vernon has a claim or is interested in one. Three men took out $100 in one day. The mines are easily reached by wagon and are easily worked, bed rock being only two or three feet down. The gold is coarse and apparently of a good quality. COM.

High School Compared.

We would just like to add before leaving the subject, that the number of marks obtained by the high school pupils in Nanaimo is hardly a fair test of relative merit when compared with the Victoria average. In the latter place there are hardly eight scholars in the high school, many of whom, no doubt, have been under the able tuition of their two masters for as much as three or four years. When this fact is taken into consideration the public of Nanaimo will see how great a tribute for congratulation that the standard is so remarkably high among competitors of the future. That both school and teachers may heartily enjoy their well-earned holiday, and be spared to come back to desk and books next August, is our earnest wish. The future of Nanaimo is largely in the hands of these boys and girls, whilst their future is largely in the hands of their teachers, each one of whom we believe is fully alive to the enormous responsibility which must of usually always rest upon those "who write upon blank pages"—when those pages are human beings whom the writing may go so far to make or mar."—Courier.

The Quality of Mercy.

The Pall Mall Gazette vouches for this story of Mr. Irving's and Miss Terry's visit to Sandringham, when they played "The Merchant of Venice" before the company. All staging beautifully, the Queen seated in her all attention until Miss Terry's time came as Portia, to deliver her speech about "mercy." We all know how she does, advancing towards the Jew and making a marked and peculiar pause before delivering her oration. The kind Queen, who was all attention, and had probably been carefully instructed in her youth by the Duchess of Kent, our good governess, in Shakespeare, was eagerly following, following the gifted actress, but quite mistook the pause for some sudden failure of memory. So the Queen began prompting her, quite loud: "The quality of mercy," etc., but Miss Terry did not take the cue, and Her Majesty then repeated more loudly and encouragingly: "The quality of mercy is not strained." This was almost too much for Miss Terry but, with a violent effort to suppress her twinkling merriment, she controlled herself and gracefully acted her cue. Good Queen Bess, we know, used to shout at the preachers, to correct them openly in theology when they preached before her, but this is probably the first time that an actress has been honored by having a queen and empress act as stage prompter.

Meeting of the City.

The opening of the Anglican Synod recently will doubtless attract many who are not Anglicans either a feeling or profession, but who will be pleased to find their way to Holy Trinity in order to hear the son of that John Ross, the deaf mute, whose romantic histories so much in it at once of pathos and heroism. They will love the son for his father's sake, and when they hear in see him, if reports speak truly, they will henceforth love him for his own. It is a curious fact, and yet that has fact is beyond all reasonable question, that of all the ecclesiastical gatherings of the season the Anglican Synods whose in which the laity take the most prominent and influential part. The revs might naturally have been expected but let anyone go and judge for himself and he will see that what we have said is strictly accurate. The "lay bees" in the Methodist conference or in the Presbyterian assembly is no such mutant factor as he is in the Diocesan Dominion Anglican Synod. He he compels attention and will neither hoopoohed nor patronized into silence insignificance.—Toronto Globe.

The Scottish Free Church

The Scottish Free Church has realized itself by giving, with an emphatic stress, its adhesion to that forward movement in religious thought which attended its birth and the mark of our time. On Tuesday its General Assembly, elated by a vote which overwhelmed all rals, Dr. Marcus Dodds, of Glasgow, to be chair of the New Testament Exegesis in its Edinburgh college. There may be a tendency to over-rate the merits and ho of Dr. Dodds, for the disposition to rate as swans all our own birds that are notable by grace or size everywhere prevails; but he is better fitted for the post he has been called to fill than any man in his own Church, or than most men of any Church. On all the great questions of faith and practice his voice has ever been plain and decisive, embodying the utterance of clear conviction; and it has also been his constant aim patiently to guide himself and others amid the obscurities of our actual position, so as to unfold the deposit of Divine truth in modes and forms adopted to existing mediums and circumstances. A born teacher, he has been called to his right place. This judgment was surpassed on Thursday. By 413 votes against 130 the Assembly resolved to appoint a thoroughly representative committee charged with the task of probing that dissatisfaction with the Westminster Confession of Faith which has been evinced, and considering what changes are needed for remedying it. The minority were averse to meddling with this symbol, which, adopted 250 years since, though not without cautious demur, has been the creed of Scottish Presbytery ever since. The majority may not have been in full accord, but they agreed that relaxation is permissible and requisite. This is significant, nor will it be futile.—London Spectator.

Hints to Orchardists.

The orchardist needs to bear in mind that much depends on having a superior quality of fruit, and that to secure a good quality the orchard must be attended to with undiminished care all the season. To put the soil in good condition at the outset is half the battle; for if land is properly prepared it will always remain so. Then it will not need one-half the work done on it that will be needed with only ordinary cultivation. If subsoiled and underdrained the moisture will penetrate naturally, but otherwise work must constantly be done to stir the soil and produce moisture.

By this time the orchard should have been plowed two ways, harrowed twice and run over with a cultivator twice. The further work of the cultivator is intended to keep up the moisture, sustain the flow of sap to make the tree grow in a healthy way, while it also produces large and excellent fruit. The pruning should all have been done before the 1st of May, and the work of thinning the fruit should be done as fast as it reaches size enough to judge as to the quantity the trees can bear. The earliest fruit must be thinned first, and so on in the order they are to ripen. If left until just before the fruit gets its growth the thinning will not do much good. Everything in the orchard should be thinned before the 1st of July, because other work will demand attention, and by that time all fruit will be large enough to know how to handle it. All the cost of this care and cultivation will be amply repaid by the increased value of the fruit.

Much is said about setting an orchard in clover as soon as its trees have made a good growth. If an orchard has been well underdrained and subsoiled, this may be proper, but if the ground has only received ordinary cultivation, to seed it down will be the wrong thing. So far as Oregon's experience can be gathered, it goes to prove that good cultivation secures the best returns. In course of time it may be necessary to manure the land, but in deep soil's the roots search for fertility below where ordinary crops send their roots, and so will sustain themselves much longer than ordinary farming can. Barnyard manure seldom goes amiss, and bone phosphates are certain to lend strength for years to come.

The Street Railway Guarantee By-Law, 1889.

WHEREAS, BY A BY-LAW ENTITLED THE "Street Railway Bylaw, 1888," passed by the Corporation of the City of Victoria on the 5th day of December, A. D. 1888, a charter or franchise was granted by the Mayor and Board of Aldermen of the said City of Victoria, to J. Douglas Warren, Andrew Gray, David W. Higgins, Joseph Hunter and Thomas Shotbolt, to lay tracks, erect poles and string wires thereon for motor, lighting, and other electrical purposes.

And whereas the said J. Douglas Warren, Andrew Gray, D. W. Higgins, Joseph Hunter and Thomas Shotbolt have since assigned all their right, title and interest in and to the said charter or franchise, through the Honorable John Herbert Turner as Trustee, to a company incorporated and known as the National Electric Tramway and Lighting Company, limited liability.

And whereas, the said National Electric Tramway and Lighting Company, limited liability, is desirous of prosecuting to completion the work contemplated and provided for by the said charter or franchise, and have applied to the Corporation of the City of Victoria for aid, in order that the said works may be speedily constructed and put in operation.

And whereas, it is expedient to grant the prayer of the said company for such aid by a guarantee of interest at the rate of five (5) per cent. per annum for a period of twenty years on the sum of forty thousand dollars ($40,000), for 5 years of the undertaking contemplated by said company, namely, for the purpose of constructing and equipping a Street Tramway or Railway.

And whereas it will require the sum of two thousand dollars ($2000) to be raised annually by special rate for the payment of said interest, in the event of the said corporation being called upon to pay the same;

And whereas the amount of the whole rateable property of the said Corporation of the City of Victoria, according to the last revised assessment roll, being for the year 1888, was $5,758,445.00, irrespective of any future increase of the rateable property of the municipality and of any income in the nature of tolls, interest, or dividends from the work, or from any stock, shares or interest in the work upon which the money so to be raised or any part thereof is intended to be invested, and also irrespective of any income from the temporary investment of the sinking fund or any part thereof.

And whereas for paying the said interest (in case as aforesaid) it will require an equal annual special rate of one twenty-eighth of one per cent. on the dollar;

And whereas it is intended to reduce the general rate so that the special rate shall not increase the total rate of taxation.

Therefore be it enacted by the Mayor and Aldermen of the Corporation of the City of Victoria as follows:

4. That the Corporation of the City of Victoria hall guarantee interest at the rate of five per cent. per annum on the bonds of the said National Electric Tramway and Lighting Company, limited liability, to the amount of forty thousand dollars ($40,000) for a period of twenty years from the date of said guarantee in manner following, namely:

2. That it shall have been shown to the satisfaction of the Corporation of the City of Victoria that fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) of the initial stock of the said Company has been paid up by the subscribers thereto and bona fide expended in and towards the construction of a street railway in said city by said company according to their charter, the said corporation shall guarantee interest at the rate of five per cent. per annum on a first issue of bonds of the said company to the amount of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000), the interest so guaranteed to be paid half-yearly.

3. When it shall have been shown to the satisfaction of the said corporation that a further sum of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) of the capital stock of the said company has been paid up by the shareholders thereof and a sum of at least forty-five thousand dollars ($45,000) has been bona fide expended in and towards the construction of a street railway in said city by the said company, the said corporation shall further guarantee interest at the rate of five per centum per annum on a further issue of bonds to the amount of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) for a period of twenty years from the date of such guarantee, the interest so guaranteed to be payable half-yearly.

4. When it shall have been shown to the satisfaction of the said corporation that a further sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) of the capital stock of the said company has been paid up by the shareholders thereof and that a sum of at least seventy thousand dollars ($70,000) has been bona fide expended by the company in and towards the construction of a street railway aforesaid, the said corporation shall further guarantee interest at the rate of five per centum per annum on a further and final issue by the said company of bonds to the amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for a period of twenty years from the date of such guarantee, the interest so guaranteed to be payable half-yearly, the proceeds of this last issue of bonds to be expended as aforesaid.

5. The liability the said corporation shall not extend beyond the guarantee of interest at the rate of five per centum per annum as aforesaid.

6. The guarantee is subject to the conditions that the said corporation shall have the right to appoint one or more auditors to examine the books of the said company, and shall have the further right to a representative on the board of directors of the said company during the whole period of the continuance of this guarantee, such representative to be nominated by the said corporation.

7. Any sum or sums of money so paid by the said corporation under its guarantee or guarantees as aforesaid shall be a first charge upon all the property and undertaking of the said company subject to the said bonds, and shall be a part of the consideration for this guarantee and shall be payable and paid to the said corporation by the said company before any dividend shall have been paid to the shareholders thereof.

8. The acceptance by said company of the benefit of this guarantee shall be conclusive evidence of the assent of said company to the foregoing clause of this by-law.

9. The form of bonds to be issued by said company to be approved of by said corporation before any liability under this guarantee attaches.

10. This by-law and the liability of the said corporation is subject to the condition that the moneys expended by the company to obtain the benefit of this guarantee and the moneys obtained from the proceeds of the bonds in respect of which interest is guaranteed by said corporation shall be bona fide expended by said company in and towards the construction of a street railway and for no other purpose.

11. That for the purpose of forming a sinking fund for the payment of said interest an equal special rate of one twenty-eighth of one per cent. on the dollar shall be raised levied and collected in each year in case said corporation be called upon to pay same upon all rateable property in the said municipality during the continuance of this guarantee.

12. This by-law shall take effect on the 28th day of June, 1889.

13. This by-law may be cited for all purposes as "The Street Railway Guarantee By-Law, 1889."

Passed the Municipal Council the 23rd day of May, A. D. 1889.

Received the assent of the ratepayers the 11th day of June, A. D. 1889.

Reconsidered and finally passed the Council this 12th day of June, A. D. 1889.

In Ontario, the system of insurance which is similar to that adopted for this Company, has been in highly successful operation for the past fifty years, and it has proved to be a great advantage to every insurer in it, by reducing the cost of insurance, and it is estimated that now three-fourths of the insurance effected in Ontario is carried by mutual companies.

SPORTING NOTES.

SEATTLE CLUB BEATEN.

Port Townsend, July 1.—About 500 people yesterday witnessed the first game of baseball of any consequence on Townsend's new grounds. It was between the Seattle and Port Townsend clubs. The weather was propitious and the game an interesting one, evenly but not brilliantly played. Seattle maintained the lead to the last half of the ninth inning, when Townsend struck a streak of heavy batting and thus won the game. At the opening of the fifth inning Coffman occupied the box for Seattle, doing good work. At the last half of the ninth the score stood six to four in favor of the Seattle's with the Port Townsends at the bat. Riderbaugh made a three base hit, and scored on an error. The next two men hit safe and were brought home by Calhoun's three bagger, giving the game to Townsend by one run.

Following is the score by innings:

Seattle	1 0 3 0 0 1 0 1 0—6
Port Townsend	0 1 0 0 0 0 1 2 3—7

Time of game, one hour and thirty minutes; umpire, Phillips.

THE NATIONAL DAY

Generally Observed in Victoria—A Deserted City.

Although no unusual demonstration was made in Victoria, the day was observed as a holiday by the majority of people. While work was proceeding on several buildings and on other contracts, the stores were all closed and during most of the day the city presented a deserted appearance. After Vancouver had drawn on our population to the extent of about 1000 the majority went out to the picnics in the direction of Langford plains, trains being kept running every hour from 8:30 in the morning to 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

The school children of the First Presbyterian church and their friends spent the day at Florence lake, a charming spot situated about three-quarters of a mile from the railway track and a short distance beyond Langford plains. The usual games and sports took place during the day, the principal of which was a baseball match between sides chosen on the field. The children had a very pleasant day, in fact young and old returned to the city in the evening in a contented mood and satisfied that they had made the most of a delightful day's outing.

The sunday school of the Methodist churches of the city, spent the day on Colwood plains which are situated about half a mile to the south of Langford plains and about half a mile from the track. Like the hundreds of picnic grounds around this part of the country, the Colwood plains are a pretty picture, a natural park, a veritable nature's pleasure ground. On account of the dryness of the weather the lake was almost dried up which slightly detracted from the beauty of the place and the pleasure of the picnicers. There is abundant and plenty of room for games and sports. The spot was well chosen. Here a happy company of probably over a thousand persons spent their holiday to their satisfaction. Postmaster Shakespeare had a long programme of sports arranged for the children, which they entered into with great spirit and which kept them interested till they were pretty well tired. The whole arrangements for the picnic were well conducted and carried out to the entire satisfaction of everyone.

DOMINION DAY IN SAANICH.

One of the Most Successful Events Ever Held in the District.

The Saanich picnic was held yesterday as usual at Sand Hill, and the weather being all that could be desired the attendance was large, the number of visitors from the city being quite equal to that of former years. A first class orchestra was in attendance to the strains of which dancing was indulged untill a late hour. The grounds were prettily decorated for the occasion and all voted the affair a grand success.

FROM THE NORTH.

Two Schooners Ashore at Alaska to be Floated off and Repaired.

The schooner Czar, Captain Schmalz, from Sanak, and Pirate Cove, Alaska, with codfish and furs for the McCollan Fishing and Packing Company, San Francisco, reports a very backward spring in the western part of Alaska. News from the canneries at Cuignik Bay, Ozernoy and farther to the westward is to the effect that salmon are nearly a month later than last year. The steamer Polar Bear at Pirate Cove, May 29th, reported no salmon having yet come into Chignik. The schooner Helen Blum is reported at Sanak with seventy-five barrels of codfish on June 1st. The schooner Vanderbilt, which was wrecked at Sanak last fall, has been floated and repaired, and is probably on her way down by this time. The schooner Dashing Wave was to have left Sand Point with a cargo of codfish. The schooner Arago was reported at Sand Point on June 10th. The little schooner Island Belle, previously reported ashore at Dora harbor, will probably be floated and repaired. The United States revenue cutter Richard Rush arrived on June 12th at Pirate Cove, with all on board well.

beautiful throw made the Vancouver defence move around pretty lively. The excitement now was intense as the Vancouverites were playing their level best to score. But every effort was futile, and the Victorians again passed the ball between the flags, this time by Paton, who was playing a good game of lacrosse.

The third game was of short duration and was a repetition of the first, Victoria scoring in 17 minutes by C. Cullen. After the third game was finished 20 minutes remained to be played, and the teams again faced up, the Vancouver team looking somewhat dubious as to their being able to score at all. They were plucky through, and playing an uphill game. The ball was immediately passed on the Vancouver defense, but was returned neatly by Quigley, but it had no sooner got down the field than, as usual it was returned and was forced through the Vancouver goals by a beautiful play of Cullen's; time 12 mintues.

This ended the match, both teams being the best of good humor. The Vancouver team lined up and gave three rousing cheers for the victors, which was returned most heartily by our boys. The teams then gave three cheers for the referee and umpires, and left the field, to make way for the baseball match.

The Nanaimo team were short some good players, but their places were filled by almost equally as good men. It is not intended to make any comments on any individual play, as it tends to disparage good team play. Both sides played a good game, and the ambitious city need not feel at all crestfallen at the result. Our advice to the Vancouver team is to keep their men in their right positions and not move them at every game, as they are bound to lose a certain amount of confidence in themselves by this method.

The home team are well pleased at the treatment they received. A banquet was given them at the Hotel Vancouver and a pleasant time was spent.

Taking the match all in all everything went off very smoothly, and the Victorians feel pretty good over their victory, which they have a perfect right to do.

Hose Contest.

Five teams competed in the "set test" at Vancouver on Dominion Day. Vancouver was represented by two teams, Seattle, New Westminster and Victoria each sent one team. In the race one of the New Westminster men stumbled and was dragged for some distance. The Vitoria team were by far the fleetest runners and passed the hydrant in great shape, far in advance of the time made by the other teams. Water was turned on and passed out of the pipe three seconds before the time made by the Vancouvers. Every little quibble was taken advantage of by the opposing teams and the pipe man was told to show the number of threads made. He removed the pipe before the judges appeared to realize their position, and they decided that the race was lost to the Victoria team. Many persons with stop watches gave the time two seconds and a half faster than the time made by Vancouver's winning team. The prize was awarded to one of the Vancouver teams by the judges.

In the hook and ladder race the Victoria team was not allowed to compete, although a team was on the ground composed principally of hosemen. The hook and ladder team belonging to the Victoria department consists of six men, and it was impossible to raise a team of twenty men without the aid of the hosemen. The hook and ladder men from this city took part in the hose race, and it seemed unfair to prevent the hosemen from running with the hook and ladder men.

An offer was made to run the Victoria team of hosemen against any team on ground for $1000, the race to take place outside of Vancouver.

DEATH OF JOHN KRIMLER.

A Former Resident of Victoria Passes Away in Germany.

A letter was received from Freiburg, Baden, Germany, to-day, announcing the demise of John Krimler, a former resident of this city. The deceased arrived in Victoria in 1862 and became a partner with a Frenchman named Sandower in the ownership of a wharf. He afterwards entered into partnership with the late Joseph Spratt in the iron works on store street. After a few years his interest was disposed of and he opened a coal and wood office. Later on he leased Strawberry Vale farm, at the head of the Arm, where he resided with his wife and family for a number of years. The farm is at present owned by J. J. Russell. About nine years ago the deceased left this city for Central America. He opened a large store in Guatemala and became very rich through speculating in coffee. He left Guatamala about five years ago and passed through this city on his way to his native country. From that time he has been drawing an income of $10,000 a year from his interests in Guatamala. The deceased was ex-Chief Engineer of the Victoria Fire Department. During his career as a volunteer fireman he was presented with a gold headed cane by the officers and members. The present was highly prized by the deceased and was carried around wherever he went. Mr. Krimler was well known and much respected in this city. He leaves a bereaved wife and two children to mourn the loss of a loving husband and kind parent.

For Raising Municipal Revenue.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE MAYOR AND Council of the Corporation of the City of Victoria as follows:

1. This By-Law may be cited as "The Revenue By-Law, 1889."

2. The "Interpretation By-Law" applies to this By-Law.

3. From and after the passage of this By-Law the general municipal revenue of the City shall be raised, levied and collected from the sources hereinafter mentioned, namely:

[a] Taxes upon real estate and improvements thereon;

[b] Licenses;

[c] Road Tax;

[d] Dog Tax;

[e] Taxes upon such personal property as is not the subject of taxation for provincial purposes, and

[f] Taxes on clubs.

4. There shall be raised, levied and collected in each year upon all the real property and improvements on real property mentioned in the assessment roll for the time being in force in the City of Victoria an equal rate of 7-10 of one per cent. on the assessed value thereof as appears by said roll.

5. The aforesaid taxes shall be due and payable by the person or persons liable for the same to the Collector of the said Corporation at his office in the City Council chambers in the City of Victoria on the 30th day of November, in the year 1889, and on the same day of the month of November in each other year.

6. Every person using or carrying on within the limits of the Corporation of the said City any of the trades, occupations, professions or business mentioned in Schedule "A" hereto particularly described, shall take out a periodical license for such period as in the said Schedule set out, and shall pay therefor such periodical sum as is therein specified, which said sums shall respectively be paid in advance to and for the use of the Corporation of the City of Victoria and their assessors.

7. No person shall use, practice, carry on or exercise any trade, occupation, profession or business in the said Schedule "A" described or named without having taken out and granted to him, her or them a license in that behalf. The licenses to be granted as aforesaid may be in the form of Schedule "B" hereto, and the same are to be granted so as to terminate on the 30th June and 31st December, and no proportionate reduction shall be made on account of any person commencing business.

8. ROAD TAX. In addition to the annual rate on the property comprised in the assessment roll and to the amounts to be levied and collected by means of licenses for using or following the several trades, occupations or professions specified by law in that behalf, every male person above the age of eighteen years and residing or living or personally engaged or employed in any business or occupation in the City for at least ninety days shall on demand pay to the Collector of the City at his office at the City Hall for the use of the Corporation the annual sum of two dollars ($2.00) by way of Road Tax.

Provided always that any person (whether resident or not) paying the said tax, who is assessed on the municipal roll for Real Estate Tax shall be entitled to have the amount so paid applied on or towards payment of any real estate tax for the time being owing by him.

9. Every person who owns or for the space of one month harbors or possesses any dog shall for each such dog, if running at large, pay to the Collector of the City for the use of the Corporation an annual tax or sum of two dollars.

10. The penalties and procedure for enforcing section 8 of this By-Law and the Schedule referred to therein shall be those contained in Sections 171 and 172 of the Municipal Act, 1889.

In all other cases of infraction of this By-Law the penalties and procedure shall be those mentioned in Sections 105 and 106 of the said Municipal Act.

11. So much of every By-Law which relates to revenue as is anywise conflicts with or is inconsistent with the provisions of this By-Law is hereby repealed so far as is necessary to give full force and effect to this By-Law and no further.

Passed the Municipal Council this 15th day of May, A. D. 1889.

Reconsidered and finally passed the Council this 26th day of June, A. D. 1889.
